At Least He Says He Was Leading Men Issue a Call for Robbed; Anyhov, His Money Disappears.

Was Capt. Joseph Lippincott Knowi-Paso Saturday night? This question Pullman officials sleuthing for the past three days. Capt. Knowlton passed through El Paso Saturday night, necompanied by Mrs. Knowiton and their little daughter, on their way from San Francisco to Beauf Knowkton's old home. Beaufort, S. C., Mrs.

After leaving El Paso Saturday night Capt, Knowiton retired, leaving his pocketbook in his coat, Next morning while near Del Rio the army officer opened his purse to get a nailefile and oticed that the book was flat. Examination showed that the drafts money which he had placed in the pocketbook were missing. "I do not know at what point on the Sunset lines I was robbed," Capt, Knowlton said at San Antonio. "Saturday night was the last time I saw my money. I did not have occasion to open my pecketbook until that night when I placed a $5 bill, a part of the change I had received from the porter in the dining car, into it. This was the first time I ever travwithout putting my money and valuables under my pillow at night. But was on a transport for a month coming over and on the boat we just nung things up. Supt. G. S. Waid, of the El Paso di-vison of the G. H. & S. A., was on the same train with Capt, Knowlton and he started an immediate investigation the reported robbery. He wired to Del Rio for a special agent of the railroad to board the train and at Sanderson Joseph Dean, sheriff of Terrell county, boarded the train and stayed all day Sunday in an effort to obtain information regarding the robbery The porter on the same train on which Capt. Knowlton and his family were riding, turned in a quantity of jewelry valued at $25 when he left the train at El Paso. Before leaving the train the negro attempted to find the owner of the jewels and when no on identified them, he turned them in at the El Paso Pullman office, when the officer reported his loss Sunday morning and of Oakland, Cal., missed a jewel case containing a gold head chain, a gold chain and pendant, a set of gold studs, and a pair of cuff buttons.

It was thought that Mrs. Dukes was also the victim of the thief, but the description of the jewelry that was turned in here at the Pullman office corresponds to that reported missing by Mrs. Dukes and she will be notified of the fact by the Pullman officials. It is thought by the local Pullman officials the army officer lost his money and drafts in the same manner that Mrs. Dukes did her jeweis. An investigation is being made, however, and an effort Before leaving San Antonio, Capt. Knowlion wired to New Orleans to stop the payment on the drafts should they

Have Purchased Ground for a Structure on North Stanton.

Another church edifice is to be added to the many already being used in El Paso. This is to be erected at the northeast corner of north Stanton and Montana streets and will cost between $6000 and $12,000.

Ellis V. Nuckolls, reader of the First Church of Christ (Scientist), the congregation of which has been holding its services in the old First Presbyterian church on Myrtle avenue, sold this morning: "We expect to erect a concrete structure facing on Stanton street and having a frontage of 52 feet on that street with 120 feet depth on Mon-tana street. The general idea used in the contruction of Christian Scientist temples will be followed out, a dome being built over the top and columns in front of the structure."

a Meeting Thursday Evening.

A movement is on foot to establish in ton, of the quartermaster's department El Paso a thoroughly good boarding of the United States army, robbed on and day school for girls, a school so board the Sunset limited train near El well conjugated and organized on so genwell equipped and organized on so genhas had the secret service officials of erous a plan that it will soon be able the railroad, the special agents, and the to hear comparison with good schools in the older cities of the country.

At a meeting on Saturday afternoon in the chamber of commerce, a group formed themselves into a committee to put onto a working basis the interest which already exists in this project in the minds of those who consider the best good of El Paso. This city is already the center for so many interests and activities of all Ribs-the surrounding country in New Mexico, Jan Arizona, in Mexico and in Texas: the city schools bear so good a reputation for their own special work; the growth of the military academy has so clearly proved both the need the opportunity for a good private school, that it seems that the time has come when El Paso should provide for girls, also the advantages and opportunities which a thoroughly good private school, wisely organized and cordially supported by the community can give.

a call has therefore been issued by 'he committee to all who are interested in founding such a school to be present at a meeting to be held at the cham-ber of commerce Thursday evening. January 20, at 7:30 o'clock. It is especially urged that women who approve as business and professional men.

The call is signed by A. Courchesna chairman; H. B. Stevens, J. J. Ormsbee, L. E. Behr, Henry Easter, J. A. Raw-lings, J. G. McNary R. F. Burges, J. A. Happer, C. A. Kinne and T. A. Davis.
